When entering a name, the format must be last name, first name. Both entries are required for a complete search. The name must be spelled correctly. If you know the case number (record number), you can enter it in the same field for the name. Tip: For cases filed on or after Feb. 7, 2019, insert SBC before the case number. Case numbers for an attorney's public discipline can be found on their attorney profile in the Attorney Search feature on the State Bar website. If you have a number for a recent case without SBC at the beginning, you must add it for a successful search. Hyphens are not required. For example, SBC-22-O-30161 and SBC-22O30161 are both valid case numbers for a successful search.
